Arch-Bishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation Assembled.

E Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Arch-Bishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, Assembled in Convocation, pursuant to Your Royal Writ, do, in a just Sense of the manifold Blessings which we Enjoy under Your Majesties Government, esteem it our Duty to take the first Opportunity of Congratulating Your Majesties Recovery from Your late Indisposition, and Your happy Return to Your Royal Cities in Health and Safety.

As the Members of the Established Church of England could not but be deeply Affected at the least Approaches of Danger to Your Majesty, their most Gracious Protector and Supreme Governor, so that good Providence which Restored

Your Majesties Health, gave them a great and inexpressible Joy.

May the Divine Goodness continue to Support and Preserve Your Sacred Majesty in Health and Prosperity; that after a long and happy Reign, You may be able to Transmit the Protection of this Church and State to a Protestant Successor in the Illustrious House of Hannover, which Your Majesty, to the great Satisfaction and Comfort of all Your Faithful and Good Subjects, has so often Declared to be at Your Royal Heart.

Her MAJESTIES most Gracious Answer.

I Return you all Thanks for the Concern you Express for My Health.

As you are, in a peculiar manner, Servants of the God of Peace, I Depend upon your Exerting yourselves in your respective Stations to promote Peace, and the true Interest of Our most Holy Religion.
